University of California, San Francisco
Department of Psychiatry
Geriatric Researcher

THE DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO invites applications for a Geriatric Researcher at the San Francisco Veterans Administration Medical Center. The position will be filled at an academic series and rank commensurate with experience, and could begin on July 1, 2012 or thereafter. Applicants must have an M.D., be Board certified in Psychiatry, and licensed to practice medicine in California at the time of appointment; or have a Ph.D. in Psychology from an APA-approved doctoral program and APA-approved internship, be license-eligible, and be a U.S. citizen. Applicants must have established skills in—and dedication to—both clinical and translational research on geriatric neuropsychiatric conditions; expertise in translational research methodologies such as epidemiology, genetics, neuroimaging, psychopharmacology, intervention, or neuropsychology; and demonstrated successful extramural funding. Responsibilities include launching a successful independent program in geriatric research; some clinical responsibilities at the SF-VA; and participation in teaching trainees in a variety of disciplines. Applicants are encouraged to submit their application electronically—including CV, statement describing current research activity, three representative journal articles, and three letters of reference—to Kristine Yaffe, M.D., Search Committee Chair, c/o Astrid Prackatzsch at astridp@lppi.ucsf.edu. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. UCSF seeks candidates whose experience, teaching, research, or community service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and excellence. UCSF is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. The University undertakes affirmative action to assure equal employment opportunity for underrepresented minorities and women, for persons with disabilities, and for covered veterans. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply, including minorities and women.
